

Summer Parent Infant | Class

Acorn Hill Waldorf Kindergarten & Nursery

A Class for Parents and Babies

age 6 weeks old to creeping

Thursdays, July 2 - 30 10:30am - Noon $125 for 5 weeks

This class offers a quiet, nurturing, supportive time for parents to simply be with their babies and to let their babies BE. Both parents and infants receive individualized attention and are introduced to the concepts of:

- conscious, cooperative care giving to support attachment and attunement
- self-initiated movement to support emerging sense of self and self confidence
- observation with warm objectivity to enhance parental confidence

Guest teacher Kate Miller is a long time yoga teacher, birth doula and childbirth educator. She holds a BFA in modern dance and an MA in Spiritual Psychology. As a movement enthusiast, Kate finds infant movement development fascinating and an essential part of ones well being. Kate attended the RIE® Foundations training with Ruth Anne Hammond in 2012 and The Advanced Pikler training with Anna Tardos and Agnes Szanto in 2015. Kate has witnessed first-hand how the freedom of self initiated movement fosters confidence and kinesthetic alignment through her own child. She will be entering the Early Childhood Professional Development program at Sophia's Hearth in 2016. Kate is excited to begin offering her first weekly Parent/Infant classes this Summer.
