

Washington Area Waldorf Speakers Series Presents:

Culturally Relevant Education

A Training for School Communities

with Celestine Stadnick

Learn ways to better equip educational organizations, teachers, students, communities, stakeholders and leaders in being truly inclusive of all members of society.

Wednesday, February 23, 8-9:30 pm

Join us on Zoom:

https://us04web.zoom.us/j/78469275163?pwd=PYq--Ltj_1DEUK1tvLGrUrdst0q7fC.1

Meeting ID: 784 6927 5163

Passcode: y3MHXJ

Celestine Stadnick was born on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in 1990, to a Lakota father and a Swiss mother. Having spent 10 years of her educational journey at the Lakota Waldorf School, the Rudolf Steiner School Lucerne and the Atelier School Zurich, she was inspired to become a Waldorf teacher. After several years as a class teacher, she founded a teacher training for indigenous Waldorf pedagogy at the Lakota Waldorf School in 2019, with the support of the Academy for Anthroposophical Pedagogy, Dornach. She is currently pursuing a master's degree in Educational Administration and Leadership at the University of New Brunswick. Her interest in culturally relevant pedagogy has been her driving force throughout her journey as a pedagogue, and she aims to create many more spaces for learners to unfold and develop themselves according to their own cultural identities.

